Dorm Constitution Changes Approved By Institute Comm.

Walker Dining Committee Placed On Permanent Basis; Eliot Chairman

Several proposed amendments to the dormitory constitution were ratified last Monday at the regular Dormitory Committee meeting in the committee room in Ware. The changes, which have been approved by the Institute Committee are the following: 1. Members of the Dormitory Committee shall hold office for the academic year instead of for only one term.

2. A permanent Walker Dining Committee shall be formed as a function of the Dormitory Committee; its purpose is to meet with the management of the Walker Memorial Dining Hall to discuss difficulties encountered in the cafeteria. The chairman of the committee is to be elected by the Dormitory Committee, and he is to choose five dormitory residents to serve under him. Accordingly, C. Homer Elliott, Jr., 6-45, a member of last term's Walker dining committee, was elected chairman.

The Dormitory Committee further decided that open house should be observed from 3:00 to 7:00 P.M. Sunday, December 6. These men, who will be initialed on December 16, are: George R. Worrell, 2-46; Warren H. Chapman, 2-46; Boni P. Martinez, 2-46; John B. Vethin, 6-45; William J. Rapoport, 2-46; Francis Brown, 2-46; Albert Chollette; Robert P. Fried, 2-46; Hector M. Wheeleck To Sing With Tech Tonight

First Walker Concert To Be Held Since 1942

The Wheeleck College Glee Club will be guest of the Technology Glee Club tonight at 8:30 P.M. in Morss Hall. This concert will be the first time the Glee Club has sung in Walker Memorial since the Army units were withdrawn, turning Morss Hall to civilian use.

Each club will sing two programs, and they will combine in singing the "Hallelujah" choruses from Handel's "Messiah," and Bach chorale, "O, Who Like Thee."

At the conclusion of the concert a dance will be held jointly sponsored by the two clubs.
