Chinese Exhibit Now In Lobby Of Building Ten

An exhibit of Chinese pictures, attire and embroidery is now being displayed in the Lobby of Building 10. The display was arranged through the efforts of the Chinese students at the Institute. The pictures depict the struggle of the people of China in their struggle against the Japanese pressor. Embroidery and pottery, excellent examples of the art and craftsmanship of these people, are also on display several of the cases.

All students and members of the staff are invited to see the films which are being shown by the Chinese students at Technology.

Dramashop Gives Play Tomorrow

"Drunkard" Is Staged

At New Eng. Mutual

Tomorrow evening the Technologic Dramashop under the direction of Prof. D. M. Fuller is staging the old temperance play, "The Drunkard." The performance will take place at New England Mutual Hall at 8:30 P.M. Tickets for the production may be purchased for $1.00 from any Dramashop member, at the T.C.A., or at the Information Office. The play, which was revised several years ago in Boston because of censorship restrictions, will be given in its original uncensored version as first presented by P. T. Barnum in 1844.

"The Drunkard" deals with the villainous Squire Scribbles (Robert W. Connor, 2-46), who plots to drive the heroine, Mary (Virginia M. Springer, 2-46, Alex E. Halberstadt, 2-46, Charles F. Street, 6-45, George Bickford, 6-45, David A. Trager, 6-45, Jerome A. Patterson, 6-45, and Alfred J. Oxenhame, 6-45.

Magoun Delivers Second Lecture

725 Listen To Talk On Pre-Marital Relations

Stressing the importance of weighing long-run values in problems of pre-marital sex relationships, Prof. F. Alexander Magoun delivered the second of the current winter series of T.C.A. sponsored Marriage Lectures yesterday at 4:00 P.M. and again at 5:00 P.M. in Room 10-250.

Professor Magoun went over the possible alternatives to continence brought about by the postponing of marriage by modern culture without a corresponding effect on biological development. "Legitimate social outlets for the person who is not frightened into virtue are the best safeguard of moral standards," Professor Magoun said.

I.F.C. To Be Held In Georgian Room Next Friday Night

Committee Is Making Table Arrangements For Formal Affair

Tickets for the I. F. C. dance, which will be held next Friday, January 28, in the Georgian Room of the Hotel Statler, have gone on sale at the various campus fraternity headquarters, and table arrangements are now being made by the Dance Committee. Henry M. Morgan, 2-46, Dance Chairman, stated that some doubling up on tables may be necessary because of the small number of tickets available to each house and the limited size of the Georgian Room.

Ruby Newman and his orchestra will provide music for the dance, which is scheduled to start at 9:00 P.M. As has been announced previously, the affair will be open to fraternity men only. This year there will not be any Saturday night fraternity parties sponsored by the I. F. C.

The members of the Dance Committee, besides Morgan, are: John J. Rudolf, 2-46, and Roger P. Abend, 2-46, as members of the Senior Prom Committee.

Order Class Rings For 2-46

The ordering of class rings for the class of 2-46 was approved along with the restriction that such rings must not be worn before the Class Exercises of the Class of 6-45. The rings were approved by the Committee comprising Board and Nautical Association Elections. The Nautical Association's new officers are: Commodore, Charles G. Bloomer, 2-46; Vice-Commodore, Leigh A. Brite, 2-46; Secretary, Morton S. Bromberg, 2-46; and Treasurer, Daniel W. Greenbaum, 2-46.

Seniors Will Submit Yearbook Biographies Monday and Tuesday

Alfred J. Oxenhame, 6-45, has been elected General Manager of the volume of Technique for the class of 6-45. Other elections which were approved yesterday by the Institute Committee are: Editor-in-Chief, George R. Dvorak, 6-45; and Business Manager, Kirk Drumheller, 6-45.

The remaining elections, those to the Junior Boards and to the staff, will not be announced until the present volume is on sale. Senior Board elections have been announced in order that work on the next Technique can begin immediately, since the present book is in the hands of the printers, the staff having completed its work.

All members of the Classes of 2-45 and 6-45 have been requested to turn their biographies in at the Technique desk which will be open in the Lobby of Building 10 between the hours of 11 A.M. and 2 P.M. on next Monday and Tuesday.

In order to have the yearbook come out on time, more men are needed on the staff in all departments.
