Squash Team Drops Match To Cadets At West Point

Losing the first Intercollegiate contest in three years, the Tech Varsity bowed to West Point, 4 to 1, last Saturday at the West Point courts. Sonnabend, playing in the number one slot, won his match, but Peirce, Scherer and Toperez, in the third and ninth places, respectively, were defeated.

This Saturday, the seconds and thirds will play Middlesex teams at Middlesex, having defeated their opponents by 5-0.

and Metcalf and Hugus followed in eighth and ninth. On Saturday morning the Downhill Slalom were raced. In the downhill Macomber flashed down the course to easily grab first place. Mac Johnson came in fourth, just two-tenths of a second behind third place. The slalom first was again claimed by Macomber, Wilson was the next Technology skier, placing fourth. Macomber, jumping 50 feet on two jumps, won the jump both on distance and form, to clinch the meet for Tech.
