Inst. Comm. Asks Activity Reports

Purpose Is To Promote Interest In Activities

Establishing a new practice in its policy towards Technology activities, the Institute Committee voted yesterday to require that at each meeting a ten-minute oral report be given by one Class A and one Class B activity. The report would be given by a member of the activity who is not the activity's representative on the committee.

The reports are designed to keep committee members informed of the activities' policies, their plans for the future, their recent accomplishments, and their financial conditions. Every activity will make a report each scholastic year at a time which will be decided upon.

Schaefer Recording Industrial Law Lectures For Forthcoming Textbook

In writing his forthcoming book on Industrial Law Professor Albert A. Schaefer has adopted a new technique—instead of expanding a set of lecture notes he will be consolidating a series of lectures. The small microphone clipped to the lapel of his coat while he delivers his Industrial Law lectures, is connected to a compact electronic voice recorder, and the term's lectures will be made permanent on the small flexible discs on which the recordings are made. About ninety of these wafer-like discs will carry the lectures, but because of their extreme thinness the whole series will be scarcely an inch in total thickness.

It is the first time in New England that quite such a technique has been used in writing a book; and to the best of our knowledge, it is the first time the ingenious voice recording-reproducing apparatus has been put to quite this use. It has, however, found a wide variety of uses in universities, hospitals, business concerns, and wherever permanent sound records are required.

At Yale, for example, it has been used to give oral exams in which the student listens to a question

C.A. Concludes Clothing Drive

The direction of post-war reoccupation of the homeless, the M.I.T. Clothing Drive, held in conjunction with the United Nations clothing collection for over-war relief, netted twenty-six loads of assorted clothing. The drive was delivered to the Massachusetts State Guard Armory to be sorted, baled, and expressed to clothing depots for immediate redistribution. Volunteers are needed desperately now for this sort of service, and baling clothes.

He who has a spare hour could call at the T.C.A. office for further information.

Team Collects Record Point Total Of 60 7-10; Rhode Island Second

Accumulating the unprecedented total of 60 7-10 points, Tech last Saturday scored a crushing victory over a field of fifteen schools in the fifty-eighth renewal of the New England Intercollegiate Track and Field Meet. Since the team's banner performers, including Casey, Serrie, Goldie, Grimmin, and Hines, ran true to form, Tech, with the added efforts of the other members of the squad, was able to surpass the record of fifty-one points held by Dartmouth for over twenty years.

As early predictions had indicated, Rhode Island placed second with a score of 36½. Although the runner-up team trailed by less than six points just past the halfway mark, M.I.T.'s superior strength decisively tipped the balance in the late events. The totals for the other teams were as follows: Tufts, 19 ⅔; Wesleyan, 14; Brown, 8 ⅓; Worcester, 8; Holy Cross, 7; Wil.
