Dorclan Initiates To Shine Shoes

Dorclan, the upperclass honorary society, has laid plans for the initiation of four new men during the week of August 5. The initiates are: James B. Pickle, 2-45; Robert E. Scherr, 2-46; Donald L. Wrisley, 6-45; and Harvey S. Freeman, 2-46.

When invited by a reporter from The Tech, Henry Koerner, 2-46, president of Dorclan, invited Tech students to appear in the lobby of Building 10 on Tuesday, August 7, from 12:00 noon to 1:00 P.M. for free shoe shines which are to be given by two of the pledges. The other two pledges have been assigned to do a bit of photographic work, namely, “shooting” the numerous secretaries who appear on the Great Court every day around noon.

Hauser, Le Beau Explain Rubber Reclaiming

Professor Ernst A. Hauser and Dr. Ree V. Le Beau, both of the Chemical Engineering department, originators of the synthetic rubber reclamation process, were the speakers at the first-term meeting of the Institute chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, held on Wednesday, July 25, at 5:00 P.M. in Room 4-270.

Professor Hauser told how the problem was formulated and how it happened that work on it was done here at the Institute. He then introduced Dr. Le Beau who gave an outline of rubber reclaiming in general without revealing any of the details, which must still be cloaked by military secrecy since the process has largely been developed during the war.

Field Day

(Continued from Page 1)

The six dormitory halls faced off against each other last Wednesday in the first games of the summer season. This afternoon at 5:00 o’clock Bemis is billed against the Senior House and Goodale will engage Walcott.

The new rules results were marked by two hairline decisions, as Bemis nosed out Hayden, 4-3, with a four-run uprising in the last round and Goodale edged out Wood, 5-4, with three tallies in the final frame. Walcott was returned an easy 8-2 winner over Munroe.

T.C.A. Appoints Division Managers

The Technology Christian Association has announced its Division Managers for the coming year. They will be Henry J. Dayton, 3-47, Manager of the Religious Action Division; D. Jerrold Fritch, 2-47, Manager of the Office Division and Director of the Book Exchange; Norman H. Holland, Jr., 2-47, and Daniel R. Vershaw, 4-45, co-directors of the Drive; and Samuel Gusman, 546, Manager of Publications.

Track Time Trials For Field Day Set; 62 Frosh On Hand

With sixty-two freshmen already on deck, Track Coach Oscar Hedlund plans to commence relay trials for the Field Day competition a week from Monday. After the elimination of a number of aspirants, an intensive three-week training period will then precede the date of the Field Day races.

The freshmen have been working more skillful tongue among the freshmen has been displayed by Armstrong, Strong, Cleveland, Ellsworth, McCarthy, Smucker, and Thompson. Prominent among the ranks of the Juniors and Sophomores has been Anderson, Barber, Creek, Johnson and Wilson.

Dorn Softball Activity Featured By Close Games

In the classification of teams into leagues, five teams were seeded, while the rest were divided merely by chance. The defending softball champion is Phi Gamma Delta.

The plan for umpiring the games is so devised this year that the order will be shared equally by competing teams. Each contest has been scheduled to facilitate particular games between teams in the same league as the organization which the umpire represents.

B. K. Softball Tourney Begins

Five Leagues Formed; Games On Briggs Field

With more than twenty teams entered, the Beaver Key Softball Tournament is scheduled to get fully under way next week. The present arrangement finds the entries lined up in five different groups, or leagues, so that each team will compete at least three times before being eliminated from play. The winners in the five separate divisions will then clash to determine the tourney winner.

All games this year, which are slated at 6:30 on week nights, will be played on the fields between Briggs Field and Memorial Drive. By mutual agreement, however, games may be rescheduled by the participants in place or available fields. Briggs Field other than those specified.

In the classification of teams into leagues, five teams were seeded, while the rest were divided merely by chance. The defending softball champion is Phi Gamma Delta.

The plan for umpiring the games is so devised this year that the order will be shared equally by competing teams. Each contest has been scheduled to facilitate particular games between teams in the same league as the organization which the umpire represents.

WANTED

MEN of ambition who will spend one afternoon a week contacting advertisers.

Apply AT THE TECH Business Office Thurs. or Fri. afternoons after 4:00 p.m.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist

Falmouth, Norwalk, and St. Paul Sts.

Sunday Services 10:45 a.m. and 7:15 p.m.;
Sunday School 10:45 a.m.; Wednesday evening meetings at 7:30 under the direction of the Committee on Christian Science healing.

Reading Room: Address: 174 Washington St., Boston 10, Mass.

Authorized and approved for worship.

The church may be read or obtained.