Debaters Oppose R.I. State, Andover Away From Home

Third Contest Listed;
Tech Wins One, Draws Two in Recent Contests

These debates are scheduled this weekend with the present schedule and two by Raph. J. Berman, 2-46, and James E. Stuart, Jr., each of whom will meet an opponent at Andover.

The debate will be about the affirmative side of the motion, "That the state of the world is unstable."

The debate will be held at Andover.

M.I.T. Victory's Paper Published On The High Seas

Every day, the M.I.T. Victory on the seven seas, a little two-page announcement of the news of the day. The Tech makes its appearance for the duration of several hundred volunteer G.I's. That is the Two Times of the M.I.T. Victory. Either Liberty Ship named in honor of the Institute.

It is a friendly little paper that sometimes world happenings with personal news, plus a little editor-al and advice to the returning of the world.

The institute team will present its views to the affirmative side of the motion, "That the state of the world is unstable."

In one issue, for example, we found reports of Prime 's announcement after his recent visit to back of Princess Margaret's appearance, and of the Austrian election; also some winks through the Almanac, mixed with some rare old correspondence; example:
"There was once an Idaho potato that married a Long Island potato.
They had a little potato joint and when the little potato grew up, it said: "Mark Twain."

The paper goes out to those who wish assistance in the more tech-ical freshman subjects, the Tech-bility training or for those in which the number of employees involved is 100 or more to be made compulsory.

Two debates are scheduled for Saturday afternoon, December 8.

Rhode Island State College will be host to the Technology team composed of James A. Moore, 2-46; Howard V. Perlmutter, 1-46; Richard O.
Baush, 1-46; and Peter L. Richardson, 16-46; Harold A. Silver, 2-46; and secretary, James M. Mowry, 2-46.

The debate will be held on Sunday.
It will be directed toward the establish-manship of an independent free trade among the na-ient. The institute

The object of the C.P.A. is to integrate more closely the separate activities of the various professional societies to the Institute. All class and societies are automatically members, each represented by their chairman and teachers.
