At 1, 7, will play host to Brown and Northeastern. This season's first triangular meet to be held at the Alumni Pool. This will be the opening contest of the season, and the teams are anxious to start off on a winning note. It will also be the first meet of the season for Coach Hedlund and the Beinis-Phi boys to get in on some of the competition which they will have to face at the eastern collegiate championships in February. Northeastern has been considered a strong contender over the past few years, but has suffered a number of injuries, and is not expected to be a formidable foe.

Yale M. T. L., 3-2, defeat Harvard And Dartmouth Lose Close Match At Yale, 3-2, Play Host To Williams Wednesday

In three collegiate squash matches Wednesday, the Yale men defeated Harvard, 4-0, and Dartmouth, 4-0, and lost a close decision to Yale, 3-2. The two wins, coupled with only a single defeat, left the Tech team in a tie for first place in the sectional championships.

In the Dartmouth match, none of the engineers were pressed to more than four games, with Captain Roger Haunabold winning in three. Although the pairings were all different in this return contest, Tech was to be able to score the tie-game handily.

A return game with Yale is in the offing soon, and if the engineers are able to reverse the count on their home courts as expected, they will have a seasonal record second only to Amory's. Moreover, if the West Point Cadets are upset by Yale, Tech may well be the 1946 national champions.
