Publication Date May 1
Price Now Set At $5

Technique, year-book for the graduating classes of 10-46, 2-46 and 4-46, now on sale in the Lobby of Bethlin 10. Cost of the book is $6.00 now for the first term, and $6.50 when the book comes out, second term.

The theme of this issue is "Technology of the Future." It has a special section devoted to the fields which should interest them, especially the Field Day pictures. Publication date has tentatively been set for May 1, 1946. The following men have been appointed to the Junior Board of Technique:

Editor: William C. Mitchell, 2-46.
Advertising Manager: John Y. Christopher, 2-46.
Treasurer: Jerome P. Krinsky, 2-46.
Circulation Manager: Robert C. Dean, Jr., 2-46.

Censored

Contrary to the claims of one of the lesser publication's publicity depart- ment, mice do not eat rectangular holes, nor even square ones. The only animal that does is a lightbulb. I submit this to understanding that starvation is a problem unique to India.

Very truly yours,

THOMAS SWALLOW, 10-47

Outing Club Plans Trip To Vermont
IOCA Will Hold Dance
On Saturday, Feb. 16

A vacation trip, sponsored by the Outing Club, will be held in Vermont during the bleak winter days. The party will stay at Beach Camp and will have the use of an Interior Motor. The members will be met at the station by a dog which will carry their baggage while they ski. The trip will last for the entire vacation, but a stay of a few days may be arranged.

On Sunday, February 16, weather permitting, the club will go either skating or skiing. Any one who does not wish to go should report to the Outing Club office in Walker Memorial Hall at 8:00 P.M. any time during the day. On Sunday night the trip will end at 6:00 P.M. with a final banquet. The trip is sponsored by the Inter-Collegiate Outing Association and is supervised by the Inter-Collegiate Ski Association, the Junior Board of Technique, and the Outing Club.

Price Now Set At $5

"O'M" presents cups to the men and women who have contributed most to the success of the Outing Club. The annual Boys' Work dinner and dance will be held at Harvard Memorial Hall. The dance will begin at 8:00 P.M. with Al Smith as the caller.

Army surplus equipment, consisting of parkas, ski boots, skis, poles and several other articles, will be on sale at the end of the year. The Inter-Collegiate Ski Assocation recently held elections for new officers to plan the season's events. In the Inter-Collegiate Ski Association, the Jun-ior Board of Technique, and the Outing Club.
