The big dance of the spring term will be the Spring Frolic, jointly sponsored by the Dormitory Dance Committee and the Dormitory Dance Committee. The big dance of the spring term will be the Spring Frolic, jointly sponsored by the Dormitory Dance Committee and the Dormitory Dance Committee.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.

Swimming

(Continued from Page 5)

by clipping 4:54.1 and also the Alumni Pool Record for the 220-yard freestyle. The NEISA meet was the only meet held in this vicinity of its kind. The number of colleges represented this year was greater than any in past years, and consequently the competition was much keener. The evening was a great success and prizes are already under way for a similar meet to be held next year at the Alumni Pool at the conclusion of the swimming season.

Summary

200-yard medley relay won by Brown (Kelley, Durbey, Rutledge). Time: 1:51.3.