Dr. J. Murray Head Of Psych. Returns To Inpatient After Army Service

Dr. J. Murray, formerly in the service of the American Psychological Association, was recently admitted as a patient to the Homberg Infirmary, New York City. The doctor, who is a member of the medical staff of the American Psychological Association, was severely injured in an automobile accident while driving last week in the vicinity of the association's headquarters.

L.F.C. Options To Be Redefined Monday, April 15

Options for the Internship will be redefined Monday, April 15. The options will not be altered after April 15. The options are as follows: A) a position in the U.S.A. Department of Veterans Affairs, B) a position in the public health service, or C) a position in a private practice.

Technology Chosen As Center Of Local Blood Bank Drive

200 Donors Are Asked To Register At T.C.A.

For Red Cross Clinic

The class's executive committee to meet on Wednesday, April 17, in Room 10-250. Dr. Compton will address the class on the topic "Is Conflict Inevitable or Unavoidable." The talk will be followed by a question and answer session.

DeSandiliana Speaks On Political Topic

Dr. Compton addressed the class on the topic "What to Expect From the Soviet Union." He said that the Soviet Union is a "sick and troubled" country and that it is unlikely to change its policies in the near future.

Vets' Association Plans Date Dance

Highlighting the social activities of the Veterans Association is a date dance to be held Saturday, June 13, at Walker Memorial Hall. The orchestra for the event will be the same one that played at the Veterans' Assembly last year.

Newly elected officers are Oliver W. Moles, 247, president; John J. Compton, 248, secretary; and Dr. Compton, 249, treasurer.

Believes Experiments A-Bomb Tests Should Be Made

Believes Experiments Are Essential To Gain Technical Information

Dr. Compton was presented with a medal for his "most outstanding" work in the field of aeronautical medicine. The medal was presented by the American Psychological Association to Dr. Compton in recognition of his work in the field of aeronautical medicine.

Maggie Discusses Honeymoon Mon.

Engagement Was Topic Of Lecture This Week

At a lecture given on Monday night, April 8, at 4:30 P.M. in the lecture hall, Professor William L. Moles, 247, president, announced the engagement of Oliver W. Moles, 247, and Miss Elizabeth J. Compton, 248, on May 22. The engagement will be announced formally on May 22.

Compton Says A-Bomb Tests Should Be Made

Believes Experiments Are Essential To Gain Technical Information

Dr. Compton was presented with a medal for his "most outstanding" work in the field of aeronautical medicine. The medal was presented by the American Psychological Association to Dr. Compton in recognition of his work in the field of aeronautical medicine.

Technology Chosen As Center Of Local Blood Bank Drive

200 Donors Are Asked To Register At T.C.A.

For Red Cross Clinic

The class's executive committee to meet on Wednesday, April 17, in Room 10-250. Dr. Compton will address the class on the topic "Is Conflict Inevitable or Unavoidable." The talk will be followed by a question and answer session.

DeSandiliana Speaks On Political Topic

Dr. Compton addressed the class on the topic "What to Expect From the Soviet Union." He said that the Soviet Union is a "sick and troubled" country and that it is unlikely to change its policies in the near future.

Vets' Association Plans Date Dance

Highlighting the social activities of the Veterans Association is a date dance to be held Saturday, June 13, at Walker Memorial Hall. The orchestra for the event will be the same one that played at the Veterans' Assembly last year.

Newly elected officers are Oliver W. Moles, 247, president; John J. Compton, 248, secretary; and Dr. Compton, 249, treasurer.

Believes Experiments A-Bomb Tests Should Be Made

Believes Experiments Are Essential To Gain Technical Information

Dr. Compton was presented with a medal for his "most outstanding" work in the field of aeronautical medicine. The medal was presented by the American Psychological Association to Dr. Compton in recognition of his work in the field of aeronautical medicine.

Maggie Discusses Honeymoon Mon.

Engagement Was Topic Of Lecture This Week

At a lecture given on Monday night, April 8, at 4:30 P.M. in the lecture hall, Professor William L. Moles, 247, president, announced the engagement of Oliver W. Moles, 247, and Miss Elizabeth J. Compton, 248, on May 22. The engagement will be announced formally on May 22.