Debaters Defeat Ellis on Subscription; Enter Cadet Meet

Todd in Oratory Test; Debating To Be Given By Society

The Debating Society successfully defended the magazine on the subject of permanent peacetime military training at Yale University last Friday evening. The winning team was composed of Lee Hancorn, 2-4, and James T. Todd, 4-4. Mr. J. R. Flabour of the Boston chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers gave the decision of the debate to Todd.

Speaking on the subject, "Andrew Jackson and John Marshall," will be the representative of the American Institute of Electrical Engineering. The debate will be given on Wednesday, April 10, in Memorial Hall.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.

The Technology debaters success-}

Debaters Defeat Ellis on Subscription; Enter Cadet Meet

Todd in Oratory Test; Debating To Be Given By Society

The Debating Society successfully defended the magazine on the subject of permanent peacetime military training at Yale University last Friday evening. The winning team was composed of Lee Hancorn, 2-4, and James T. Todd, 4-4. Mr. J. R. Flabour of the Boston chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers gave the decision of the debate to Todd.

Speaking on the subject, "Andrew Jackson and John Marshall," will be the representative of the American Institute of Electrical Engineering. The debate will be given on Wednesday, April 10, in Memorial Hall.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.

The Debating Society has accepted an invitation to compete in a tournament at Dartmouth College of English and History, debating team will be accomplished by Mr. Compton's committee in charge of the affair. The debate will follow a singing contest, which is to be held on April 18. The rules for the debate will be mailed to all persons connected with the debate.