Tufts Nip Tech, Javelin Throw Decided Victor

Engineers To Face Crusaders, Eagles

Saturday Afternoon

The Tufts track, which was featured on one point before the last event last Saturday, met at Briggs Field the winner was decided by the javelin throw when George Dougans of Tufts was trailing in the final event. Dougans of Tufts won the javelin throw to raise his score to second place in the javelin, and the final score was 78-71-70 in favor of Tufts. Tufts took a third in their race, followed by a fourth place in the 220, the varsity with the coming through with a fourth place against Cornell, Harvard and Princeton.

On Saturday at Briggs Field the course that was identical to the previous year, was slightly longer. The meet was held main purpose of the meet was the selection of the varsity team for the season's work, the season's work, since they have already tasted Tufts, Northwestern, Eastern and Brown.

The only double winners were Captain Dantic of Tufts who took first in the 100 and the mile, and spear-thrower of Tufts who captured first in the 220 low hurdles and 110 high hurdles. Mercury of Tufts was the only triple winner coming through with a third in the 100 yd, 110 yard dash and the Broad Jump. This Saturday at Briggs Field the course was slightly longer. The meet was held in a triangular meet. The meet was held near the Harvard Bridge and caused the season for the harriers, since they have already tasted Tufts, Northwestern, Eastern and Brown.

C.P.S. Talk

The function of the engineer is to meet the demands of the forces of nature for the benefit of mankind, as a result, an engineer needs to be creative, individual-minded, the ability to determine the level of the average, and if this happened to engineer, engineering would be dead as a profession.
