Vets To Hold Snuffa Shuffle Tomorrow Eve.

Dance Will Feature Musical Group Open House in Dorms

Climaxing a week-end of social activities at the annual Spring Prom, the Snuffa Shuffle dance to be held tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the Evening Commons, is to be the last event on the offical calendar of the Lowell Institute Student Association called this term, and is open to all members of the Institute faculty as well as the Lowell Institute Student Association and the student body of the Tech.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased at 25 cents each in advance at any downtown book store, and at the door for 35 cents. No general sale of tickets will be made. Last year's dance was well attended, and the dance committee isalegin to repeat the success of last year. The dance committee is in charge of the entire dance, and is composed of the following:

Chairman, Miriam G. Carlson, 2-48; Business Manager, George P. Harrower, 2-48; Secretary-Treasurer, Robert R. Browder, 2-48; Poster Chairman, Mark M. Stevens, 2-48; Drum Major, John A. Cleveland, 2-47; Publicity Chairman, Robert L. Wilbur, 2-47; and Dance Manager, Ralph E. Long, 2-48.

For Summer Term

No Freshman Camp

Camp O-AT-KA, East Sebago, Me., will not be sponsored this traditional re-creation of the Techmen tribe. Although some of the history of this group is obscure, as far as is known it was first organized in 1935, and is the oldest Techmen tribe known in the Institute. However, the present group, now under the leadership of John A. Cleveland, 2-47, has never been represented by a large delegation. Therefore, the Techmen tribe will not be included in the list of events for this term, the Lecture Series Committee is presenting the following results to its recent meeting:

1. In regards to these future plans, one of the most important is the planning of the Veterans’ Society. After a discussion on the advisability of forming such a society, it was decided to hold an election meeting Tuesday, May 21, at 5:00 P.M. in Room 10-267. The challenge was unofficial and in-It is to be held in the Lincoln Auditorium, December 3rd.

The Sophomore Prom, which will consist of a 10:00-P.M. dance, and a 11:00-O’clock dinner, will be held in the Huskies’ Club, 10-47, and in the Smith and Munroe Dormitories, the Outing Club, and the north side of the Student Union.

For Summer Term

No Freshman Camp

Camp O-AT-KA, East Sebago, Me., will not be sponsored this traditional re-creation of the Techmen tribe. Although some of the history of this group is obscure, as far as is known it was first organized in 1935, and is the oldest Techmen tribe known in the Institute. However, the present group, now under the leadership of John A. Cleveland, 2-47, has never been represented by a large delegation. Therefore, the Techmen tribe will not be included in the list of events for this term, the Lecture Series Committee is presenting the following results to its recent meeting:

1. In regards to these future plans, one of the most important is the planning of the Veterans’ Society. After a discussion on the advisability of forming such a society, it was decided to hold an election meeting Tuesday, May 21, at 5:00 P.M. in Room 10-267. The challenge was unofficial and in-It is to be held in the Lincoln Auditorium, December 3rd.

The Sophomore Prom, which will consist of a 10:00-P.M. dance, and a 11:00-O’clock dinner, will be held in the Huskies’ Club, 10-47, and in the Smith and Munroe Dormitories, the Outing Club, and the north side of the Student Union.

For Summer Term

No Freshman Camp

Camp O-AT-KA, East Sebago, Me., will not be sponsored this traditional re-creation of the Techmen tribe. Although some of the history of this group is obscure, as far as is known it was first organized in 1935, and is the oldest Techmen tribe known in the Institute. However, the present group, now under the leadership of John A. Cleveland, 2-47, has never been represented by a large delegation. Therefore, the Techmen tribe will not be included in the list of events for this term, the Lecture Series Committee is presenting the following results to its recent meeting:

1. In regards to these future plans, one of the most important is the planning of the Veterans’ Society. After a discussion on the advisability of forming such a society, it was decided to hold an election meeting Tuesday, May 21, at 5:00 P.M. in Room 10-267. The challenge was unofficial and in-It is to be held in the Lincoln Auditorium, December 3rd.

The Sophomore Prom, which will consist of a 10:00-P.M. dance, and a 11:00-O’clock dinner, will be held in the Huskies’ Club, 10-47, and in the Smith and Munroe Dormitories, the Outing Club, and the north side of the Student Union.

For Summer Term

No Freshman Camp

Camp O-AT-KA, East Sebago, Me., will not be sponsored this traditional re-creation of the Techmen tribe. Although some of the history of this group is obscure, as far as is known it was first organized in 1935, and is the oldest Techmen tribe known in the Institute. However, the present group, now under the leadership of John A. Cleveland, 2-47, has never been represented by a large delegation. Therefore, the Techmen tribe will not be included in the list of events for this term, the Lecture Series Committee is presenting the following results to its recent meeting:

1. In regards to these future plans, one of the most important is the planning of the Veterans’ Society. After a discussion on the advisability of forming such a society, it was decided to hold an election meeting Tuesday, May 21, at 5:00 P.M. in Room 10-267. The challenge was unofficial and in-It is to be held in the Lincoln Auditorium, December 3rd.

The Sophomore Prom, which will consist of a 10:00-P.M. dance, and a 11:00-O’clock dinner, will be held in the Huskies’ Club, 10-47, and in the Smith and Munroe Dormitories, the Outing Club, and the north side of the Student Union.

For Summer Term

No Freshman Camp

Camp O-AT-KA, East Sebago, Me., will not be sponsored this traditional re-creation of the Techmen tribe. Although some of the history of this group is obscure, as far as is known it was first organized in 1935, and is the oldest Techmen tribe known in the Institute. However, the present group, now under the leadership of John A. Cleveland, 2-47, has never been represented by a large delegation. Therefore, the Techmen tribe will not be included in the list of events for this term, the Lecture Series Committee is presenting the following results to its recent meeting:

1. In regards to these future plans, one of the most important is the planning of the Veterans’ Society. After a discussion on the advisability of forming such a society, it was decided to hold an election meeting Tuesday, May 21, at 5:00 P.M. in Room 10-267. The challenge was unofficial and in-It is to be held in the Lincoln Auditorium, December 3rd.

The Sophomore Prom, which will consist of a 10:00-P.M. dance, and a 11:00-O’clock dinner, will be held in the Huskies’ Club, 10-47, and in the Smith and Munroe Dormitories, the Outing Club, and the north side of the Student Union.