Glee Club Sings In Traditional Night At Pops
Institute Committee Sponsorship Program
At Symphony June 1
Traditional glee club postcard to the Technological Social season, the Tech Night at the Pops on Saturday, June 1, at Symphony Hall again promises to be the big event of the term. The Technology Glee Club is the only organization actively participating in this event.

The entire performance is being sponsored by the Cambridge Community.

The Glee Club is scheduled to sing as its first selection an excerpt from "The Testament of Freedom," by Randall Thompson, which is based on the quotation, "The God who gave us life, gave us liberty at the sky, and two choruses from the centenary of Cambridge as a bridge. This award is the Elks' arrangement and the numbers from "Oklahoma!" will be accompanied by the orchestra; the other selections are to be sung a cappella.

The vocal portion of the program will be conducted by Mr. Brown. Dr. Jackson, Warren, the director of the Glee Club of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was in-charge of the program of the School of Commerce purchased the first two days that Wednesday, the 4th, at 9:00 p.m. on Cambridge Commons, the Institute is making every effort to restore it as soon as possible. However, all restrictions have not been removed.

Brown To Speak At M.I.T.
Meeting Friday Evening
Announcement was made by the speaker at the final dinner meeting of the Alumni and Huntington Society next Friday, May 31. The meeting will be held at the Smith Dining Hall at 9:00 p.m. Brown, a prominent member of the A.M.S., has been in charge of the use of gymnasium. Reservation of tables must be made by Miss Hulse at the Metalurgical department headquarters by May 28.

A GENERAL BOOK STORE
Specializing in TEXT BOOKS at prices that save you money largest stock in Greater Boston

The Phillips Book Store
1288 MASS. AVENUE
HARVARD SQUARE
Cambridge, Mass.

Enjoy Your Evenings at the
Cafe De Paris
MANS. AVE. BOSTON

Glee Club Clubs In Traditional Night At Pops
Institute Committee Sponsorship Program
At Symphony June 1
Traditional glee club postcard to the Technological Social season, the Tech Night at the Pops on Saturday, June 1, at Symphony Hall again promises to be the big event of the term. The Technology Glee Club is the only organization actively participating in this event.

The entire performance is being sponsored by the Cambridge Community.

The Glee Club is scheduled to sing as its first selection an excerpt from "The Testament of Freedom," by Randall Thompson, which is based on the quotation, "The God who gave us life, gave us liberty at the sky, and two choruses from the centenary of Cambridge as a bridge. This award is the Elks' arrangement and the numbers from "Oklahoma!" will be accompanied by the orchestra; the other selections are to be sung a cappella.

The vocal portion of the program will be conducted by Mr. Brown. Dr. Jackson, Warren, the director of the Glee Club of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was in-charge of the program of the School of Commerce purchased the first two days that Wednesday, the 4th, at 9:00 p.m. on Cambridge Commons, the Institute is making every effort to restore it as soon as possible. However, all restrictions have not been removed.

Brown To Speak At M.I.T.
Meeting Friday Evening
Announcement was made by the speaker at the final dinner meeting of the Alumni and Huntington Society next Friday, May 31. The meeting will be held at the Smith Dining Hall at 9:00 p.m. Brown, a prominent member of the A.M.S., has been in charge of the use of gymnasium. Reservation of tables must be made by Miss Hulse at the Metalurgical department headquarters by May 28.

A GENERAL BOOK STORE
Specializing in TEXT BOOKS at prices that save you money largest stock in Greater Boston

The Phillips Book Store
1288 MASS. AVENUE
HARVARD SQUARE
Cambridge, Mass.

Enjoy Your Evenings at the
Cafe De Paris
MANS. AVE. BOSTON

Glee Club Clubs In Traditional Night At Pops
Institute Committee Sponsorship Program
At Symphony June 1
Traditional glee club postcard to the Technological Social season, the Tech Night at the Pops on Saturday, June 1, at Symphony Hall again promises to be the big event of the term. The Technology Glee Club is the only organization actively participating in this event.

The entire performance is being sponsored by the Cambridge Community.

The Glee Club is scheduled to sing as its first selection an excerpt from "The Testament of Freedom," by Randall Thompson, which is based on the quotation, "The God who gave us life, gave us liberty at the sky, and two choruses from the centenary of Cambridge as a bridge. This award is the Elks' arrangement and the numbers from "Oklahoma!" will be accompanied by the orchestra; the other selections are to be sung a cappella.

The vocal portion of the program will be conducted by Mr. Brown. Dr. Jackson, Warren, the director of the Glee Club of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was in-charge of the program of the School of Commerce purchased the first two days that Wednesday, the 4th, at 9:00 p.m. on Cambridge Commons, the Institute is making every effort to restore it as soon as possible. However, all restrictions have not been removed.

Brown To Speak At M.I.T.
Meeting Friday Evening
Announcement was made by the speaker at the final dinner meeting of the Alumni and Huntington Society next Friday, May 31. The meeting will be held at the Smith Dining Hall at 9:00 p.m. Brown, a prominent member of the A.M.S., has been in charge of the use of gymnasium. Reservation of tables must be made by Miss Hulse at the Metalurgical department headquarters by May 28.

A GENERAL BOOK STORE
Specializing in TEXT BOOKS at prices that save you money largest stock in Greater Boston

The Phillips Book Store
1288 MASS. AVENUE
HARVARD SQUARE
Cambridge, Mass.