Soph Prom Has Gala Informal in Morss Hall

Turnernrandachrich is Saturday, March 29; Hal Reeves To Play

More news about the Turner- randachrich committee is available in the companion document. The committee has announced that the spring ball will be held in the Mulberry Room of the new student center. The committee will feature the music of Hal Reeves. He stated last week, the committee is working on the details in secret.

In complete opposition to the formal Friday dance, the required dress for the day, for the girls, a man's shirt, a skirt, and hobbs—seem. The men are to wear everyday clothes. There are a few new requirements for others. Inquiries about the exact dress code or shoes or sweaters are to be worn are subject to the discretion of the committee, beyond the scope of this article. Female guests will not wear silk or nylon stockings. However, with these restrictions, there are positive restrictions in dress—that is, so far as can be anticipated under the circumstances. Students above are merely basic elements of the dress code. The committee has yet to determine what constitutes the necessary elements of the dress code.

In other words, if you desire to wear your new spring straw hats, to carry a red flag, or desire to wear your new spring coat, you will have to ask the committee. The committee has yet to determine what constitutes the necessary elements of the dress code. In such instances, you will have to ask the committee.

Rel. Pub. Com. Begun To Publicize Student Activities

Recently the publicity relations committee of the Student Society at Technology has begun to advertise its activities in a public relations campaign. The committee is responsible for the dissemination of information about student activities to the public at large. This public relations campaign is to inform home town and out of town friends of the activities of the various student organizations.

William J. Mahoney, who is the chairman of the committee, is a senior in the Engineering Department. He said that the committee will not publicize activities of any organization that the committee does not consider to be of interest to the general public. He added that the committee is very interested in the activities of the various student organizations and is interested in the activities of the various student organizations.

Catholic Concept Of Marriage Presented By Catholic Club

By Tom Hinton

In order that Catholic and non- Catholic students at Technology might get a slant on marriage other than that presented by Professor F. Alexander, Catholic Club last week presented a discussion of the Catholic concept of marriage. The discussion was held in the Catholic Club room in Walker Memorial.

The discussion was led by the Rev. Rev. Father Alexander, who is the president of the Catholic Club. He said that the discussion was intended to help students understand the Catholic concept of marriage.

"I would like to see," he said, "that marriage under these circumstances be regarded as a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marriage is a union of two souls. In other words, God himself gave the answer to the question of marriage. He said that marri...