said Rev. MacKenzie after the reading of the service. And yet those who have married are in trouble with a shorter help, then according to "The Catholic doctrine, God will give in unlimited quantities. Why? Because God is the third party to the marriage. "If God's help is sought the worst undertakes can be borne.

Why is it that God insist on the perpetration and exclusiveness of marriage? "Because marriage is the permanent institution for the propagation of human life, the constitution of families, and the doing of God's ways," said Rev. MacKenzie.
