Evans Elected
47 Commodity
Sailing Team Praised
At Nautical Dinner

At the M.I.T. Nautical Association dinner held last Friday, Ralph L. Ingersoll, R. '44, was elected commodore for the 1947 sailing season. Other newly elected members of the Richard Welsh, W. S., Vice-Commodore; Philip M. Briggs, S. Secretary, and John Badier, 67, Treasurer. Three men, John Fennessy, Richard Willett, and Richard McCullough '46, were elected members-at-large of the executive committee.

Certificates of recognition were presented to the member skippers of the sailing team and to the three men who served as officers of the Association. A special certificate was presented to Dr. Allan L. Rinkin in recognition of his outstanding services in sailing coach during the war years.

The sailing team had an outstanding record during 1946, winning every race in which it was entered. Technology's sailing team had an outstanding season, finishing second in the middle division, actually improved during the final period, and saw the Tech skaters playing against the league leaders. While Kilmann of B.U. received the most letters, the men of the Inter-Collegiate Sailing Association for the spring season, and though its fall record was less successful, the team placed second in the Associated's ratings for the spring. In the spring league regattas, four Technology skippers topped the list of 41 skippers representing the colleges. The Institute held a total of eight regattas, with Schoolmen, John C. Hartman, John M. Dwyer, Bonier B. Brown, Steve Ricciardi, and Bob Price holding the first four places.

The Beaver sailors will participate in at least ten regattas during the 1947 spring season. Starting on March 17, a triangular regatta on the Charles, the season will extend to May 3, when Tech faces BU. During the season the Beaver sailors will compete against such teams as Brown, Michigan, Connecticut, Holy Cross, Harvard, Princeton, Yachting, and Navy.
