Spring Frolic Date Revealed

Dorm Dance Comm.,

WILL LIMIT ATTENDANCE

Three hundred tickets will be the maximum number available for the "Spring Frolic," the Dormitory Dance Committee's latest informal dance. The festive occasion will be Friday evening, April 11, in Morse Hall, Waller Memorial.

Dancing will begin at 9:00 P.M., and the A.M. schedule is: 2-4:00 P.M. for the "Spring Frolic," and, as usual, will be available beginning Tuesday when the dormitories are opened. Because of the great demand for tickets to recent dorm dances, the Committee assures everyone that it will be equally generous with the boys and girls. Edwards and his Orchestra will furnish the music. This band is the same group which proved very popular during Formal, and it has been engaged again in response to many requests. The ensemble includes thirteen players and a drum section.

More Hall will be positively unusual for formal purposes. The unusual decorations will feature an elegant ceiling and balustrade as backdrop for the action, and abundant floral decorations. Special entertainment will be provided and plenty of refreshments will be available to those who ease easily. As usual, all pounds and balcony in Walker Memorial will be open and reserved for the use of the dancers.

The Dance Committee has announced that the Spring Frolic will take place for the boys and girls who may prefer to dance during this term.

Students Debate Christian Aims

Over 100 Delegates Are Guests of T.C.A.

Chairman R. V. Huker, Jr., of Chicago, said last Monday night in the lobby of Building 10 where there were some students selling magazines, that our President, in his outline for the year, had asked for a three-fold effort. St. Louis will be the site of the TCA conference this year.

That Christians should participate in political life was a subject that reached almost unanimously by the more than 160 delegates to the St. Louis Christian Movement Conference, which was held at Technological University. Almost all of the major colleges in the St. Louis area were represented at the conference, which bore the title of "We Shall Keep Christmas Together."

The aim of the conference was to ascertain the reality of the religious and spiritual aspect of life, and to ascertain the effects of particular emphases on the religious and spiritual life of the church. The conference was well attended, and the attendance of the conference was reported by many of the newspapers.

The conference was held in a building on the campus of the university, and it has been engaged again in the fall.
