36 Pledges Initiated By Alpha Chi Sigma

Chapman, National Head, Is Speaker At Banquet

Alpha Chi Sigma, honorary chemical fraternity, initiated 36 new members on Saturday afternoon, April 5. This is the largest group ever initiated by the fraternity at one time.

Both old and new members attended a banquet at the graduate house after the initiation ceremonies. A. Watson Chapman, national head of the fraternity, was guest speaker.

Six pledges from the University of New Hampshire and Yale chapters were initiated along with 30 Technology students. Among the Institute pledges, Joseph S. Baker, Jr., '48; William Haddon, '49; Frank J. Iskra, '48; William J. Raich, '49; George W. Rengstorff, '49, won prizes for good work as pledges.

The following were also initiated: Marshall E. Baker, '49; Rudolfo F. Barrera, '49; John R. Beasley, Jr.; Richard berry, '48; Edmund M. Bevington, '49; George Brown, '48; Frank E. French, Jr., '48; George A. Freund, '49.
