SEC.-TREASURER AND INST. COMM. REPRESENTATIVE NOMINEES

I

Debating Tourney Here This Weekend

Technology, Dartmouth, Boston University, Holy Cross, Brown, Mt. Holyoke, and possibly Harvard, Tufts, Wellesley, and Boston College will have teams competing in the New England debating tourney to be held here over this weekend. The Tech team will be chosen from the newly debating team, whose members are John Oslen, W. James Utmer, W. Charles Warren, W. Phillip Jenner, W. Robert Auty, W. Robert Dorsey, W. Robert Ewing, Jr., and Alex Arbuckle, Jr.

Tech Show

A group of selected members of the CIT Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Arnold B. Malcolm, will supply the music, according to impartial observers the show is shaping up well and should be a success.

There are approximately 100 seats available for the two performances with the best selection of seats being offered in the $2.20 (balcony) seats for Friday night.

Assemblies Ball

At midnight supper will be served in the upper hall at Walker. Twenty-one assemblies will be attended by the dates of the members of the graduating classes.

The Assemblies Ball, a tradition of the college, will be resumed Friday evening, April 25. Since 1941 there have been assemblies because of the war, but this year the annual festivity is once again being given by the members of the student staff of the Walker Memorial Dining Service.

Dancing will be from 10:00 p.m. to 3:00 a.m. to the music of Ruby Sevier, here this weekend.

Lee, Series Comm. To Conduct Poll

Coryell Speaks Wed.; Bromfield On May 15

The Lecture Series Committee will conduct a poll of the students tomorrow or Monday to determine what kind of speakers and subjects are most wanted. Bruss will be placed at convenient places throughout the Institute, and ballots are to be distributed in the morning and may be returned at the board.

Next Wednesday, April 30, Professor Charles D. Coryell of the Chemistry Department will speak in Room 4-270 at 3:00 p.m. on the subject "The Human Implications of Atomic Energy." After a brief dissertation of our achievements thus far, he is to concentrate on what we must do now. Professor Coryell came to the Institute after working for four years on the atomic bomb project in Chicago and Oak Ridge. He has been in the formation of the Association of Oak Ridge Scientists, which has tried to make clear to the general public the implications of atomic energy and the importance of international control.

Lyle Brownden, the famous nor-talk, is scheduled to talk Wednesday, May 14, on soil conservation. In addition to works of fiction, Bromfield has published several books on farming and soil practices based on his own experiments in Ohio. Professor Carl W. Deutsch of the Agricultural Department will speak Thursday, May 6, on "The Roots of Farming." The lecture is presented in the Institute.

Handlin Discusses Cultural Pluralism

Dr. Oscar Handlin, assistant professor in the newly formed Department of Social Relations at Harvard, will lecture on the topic "Cultural Pluralism in America." The talk will be held this afternoon, Friday, April 30, at 5:00. In Faculty Lounge of Walker Memorial. The lecture is presented in the Institute.

In his special field of study, the social implications of American immigration, Dr. Handlin is best known for his book "American Immigrants, 1790-1865." A study of Americanization, this work won him the prize awarded by the American Historical Society for the best work by a young scholar.
