Lacrosse Squad Defeats Drexel and Rutgers U.; Trounced by Dartmouth

Clifford Scores Three Goals To Star in Games

With wins over Drexel and Rutgers and a loss to Dartmouth last week, the Tech Lacrosse team was in record to show wins and one defeat for the young 1947 season. Drexel and Rutgers played their most thrilling game, playing with the new New England rules. Dartmouth poured six goals into the nets to tie the score, but after the turnout and the shells. After the turnout and the shells, the Beavers slaughtered an inferior Drexel team by 11 goals. After going behind in the first period, the Beavers played their most thrilling game, playing with the new New England rules. Dartmouth poured six goals into the nets to tie the score, but after the turnover and the shells, the Beavers slaughtered an inferior Drexel team by 11 goals.