I. F. C. Dance Is Tonight
At the Statler Ballroom; 500 Couples Expected

Boyd Raeburn To Play; Four Cocktail Parties Scheduled Tomorrow

A capacity crowd of close to 600 couples is expected to fill the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Statler tomorrow for 20th anniversary open house of the Interfraternity Council. Dancing will be from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. to the rhythms of Boyd Raeburn's Orchestra. Ticket, restricted to fraternity men because of the large demand, have been sold out since last week.

Tomorrow afternoon the I. F. C. will present a classical program from 3:30 to 4:00 p.m. at different locations. Two couples showing a dance ticket will be admitted to these parties, which will be held at, Theta Pi, Phi Kappa, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Sigma Nu. These parties will contain the official functions of the I. F. C. weekend but it is expected that several fraternal groups will hold spontaneous parties tomorrow night.

Raeburn, with his comparatively new but highly regarded aggregation, is expected to delight the dancers with his unfamiliar arrangements of popular dance music. The orchestra, completely reorganized a year ago, recently received the Esquer award as leader providing theForeign Service Band for the next year's band of the Year selection.

Pristine outfits with the head table to dance with Charles Barnard; Jerry Hunsaker, Harry Powers, and H. W. G. Hume.

For tomorrow the formal dance tonight include Mrs. Karl T. Compton, Fred衬衫, A. A. A., and Arleen Dean.

Zimmerman, Bond Head Committees

The executive committee of the Institute Institute, the student governing body, has announced the formation of William B. Zimmerman, for the first time under the chairmanship of the Walker Memorial Committee and the Student Government. Chairman of Virginia N. Stimson and Kenneth A. Marsh, of the Walker Memorial Committee, whose main function is the organization of student Institute activities, has recently chosen four new members from the class of 59. The principal functions of the badge committees is the allotment and distribution of all activity funds.

Edward B. Orr, editorial writer on labor subjects for the Christian Science Monitor, will address the graduating classes Thursday, May 13, at 10:30 a.m. in Memorial Hall.

M.I.T. V.A. Labor Forum

The M.I.T. V.A. Labor Forum will be held on the campus tomorrow afternoon, at 4:00 p.m. in Mitford Hall, to discuss the problems of labor. The forum, which is being sponsored by the American Library Association, is an example of the work in labor and management.

Four Prominent Men To Discuss Problems Of Labor Tomorrow

Because of the labor advance and the increasing interest in labor problems, the M.I.T. V.A. Labor Forum has been extended for 44 weeks. For the next session, the forum will meet on Monday afternoons.

The forum, which is being sponsored by the American Library Association, is an example of the work in labor and management. It is being held in the Memorial Hall of the College of Arts and Sciences on the campus of M.I.T. The forum is being attended by members of the labor movement, who are interested in the problems of labor and management.

LADY'S \\
LABOR AND MANAGEMENT

Activities Ball Features Shows By Tech Clubs

Glee Club Performs Tech Nite at Pops Tomorrow Night

Only unused seats are now left for the people who have not been able to acquire tickets for the Pops, which will be held tomorrow night at 8:30 p.m. at Symphony Hall. These seats are being sold to students by the Technical Christian Association, and there will be none sold at the door.

The affair being managed by the Boston Society, the being the first time that the students have not handled the program.

Both the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs will participate in the Glee Club's part of the program. They will be conducted by Harry Jacobs Warren. This year's Glee Club is being accompanied by two pianists and organ, as the Program Orchestra no longer accompanies glee clubs.

Inst. Comm. Debates Recent Election

Committee Will Recompose Freshmen Rules in September

Three motions requiring constitutional amendment were among the proposals which were reported by the Institute Committee yesterday which it was not necessary or desirable to vote on before the traveling of the joint committee.

The proposed amendments, all of which were suggested by the Representatives for the class of 1936, are provided for. The class meetings in addition to class meetings between the time of nominations deadline and elections day for the purpose of presenting candidates, and would be a step forward in the promotion of literature for any candidate without the consent of the Committee.

After much discussion, a motion to require freshmen tags to be presented and presented to student new in order to be eligible, the meeting adjourned.

No new motions were presented on final day of the convention, and the meeting adjourned.

New Discourse Set By Kroenreich

Breaks 1936 Mark Set

A new discourse set for the class of 1936 will be scheduled Tuesday in Briggs Field by Don Kroenreich, a member of the Junior Class. The new mark was 130 ft. and 153 lb. and displaces the throw of 128 ft. in 1936 by John G. Kroenreich in 1936.

Kroenreich competed in the discus, hammer, javelin, javelin, and the field, and was one of the top competitors in the state meet last year. Despite the fact that he has been the best athlete scating on the Briggs track, the fact that he has completed the record and the new men and women, and the record for the records.

This is the first ever varsity record for the fields and the team. In the winter, they were unable to take another place, and it was a matter of the record having been set.

The record was also set at 41.8 points in the discus, the new men and women, and the record for the records.

Edward B. Orr, editorial writer on labor subjects for the Christian Science Monitor, will address the graduating classes Thursday, May 13, at 10:30 a.m. in Memorial Hall.

M.I.T. Symphony To Present Spring Concert On May 23

Tickets for the Spring Concert of the M.I.T. Symphony Orchestra, to be held Friday, May 23, in Symphony Hall, will be sold without restriction or advance sale in the T.C.A.'s Walker Memorial Office, and will be available at desks in Building 10 next week, May 13 through 14. Sales hours will be from 1:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and the admission charge is $1.50 for orchestra seats and $1.00 for the balcony.

The Spring Concert, under the direction of Dr. Klose Lempke, will be the second concert of the season for the orchestra. The orchestra has recently presented its New London debut and has been highly regarded by the public.

All X-Rays Taken, Read By Medical Department

The film program conducted by the Medical Department and State Department of Health has been completed and nearly ready for publication. Last year's publication of X-ray pictures indicates that results are negative.

SERNEN WEEK TICKETS

Tickets for the 1947 Senior Week will be on sale at the office of Building 10 next week, Saturday, Wednesday, and Thursday between 11:00 A.M. and 4:00 P.M. For those wishing to attend the Senior Week Concert, the price is five dollars for the entire week of events, or eleven dollars without admission to the Senior Week Concert. The Senior Week tickets will be sold without restrictions as long as they last. Some of the Senior Week activities include the Academic Awards Banquet on Tuesday without options, admission for $5.00.

The tickets cover all the activities of Senior Week which will start the evening of Monday, June 10, and will continue until Commencement on June 13.

J. R. C. Bailey, secretary-treasurer of the Massachusetts C.L.D., and Jors Hilin, general manager of the Institute Iron Works, will represent labor and management, respectively.