Fiddler Speaks Over W. M. I. T.
Last Thursday at 11:30 a.m.
VMB presented an unusual inter-terview with Arthur Fidler, conductor of the Boston Pops Orchestra.
Mr. Fidler gave a preview of last summer's Tanglewood Festival and discussed some of the lesser known facets about the Boston study "Pops," as well as itself. He the broadcast, which lasted fifteen minutes, was transmitted on an iron side line tape recorder and recorded through the MPT Andrews department. It was unacquainted to the recording disks and presented over WMB as a soundboard on Friday at 9:00 p.m.

Just, Comm. Grants Class 8 Status To Hub Club Class B standing has been granted the Hub from the Comm.
Society. This is the first time that the Hub has been regarded as a separate society, which will be a major factor in the Hub's future success.

The annual Beer Party will start at 8:00 p.m. and will continue till the wee hours of the morning.

Festival
The World Youth Festival Festival is sponsored by the World Youth Union of Democratic Youths including the leading religious, social, and cultural youth organizations of the United States.

The Festival will be held in Prague, Czechoslovakia, from July 30 August 15, 1947. The Czechoslovak Government is enthusiastic in the delegations coming from all over the world.

No Talk-Talk-Talk
This is a cultural "festival" not a political one. There will be dramatic competitions, musical competitions, sports competitions, artistic performances, Delores, soldiers, (artistic, professional and folk performances) and musical festivals
