Lacrosse Players Lose to Williams, Meet Stevens Sat.

The Tech lacrosse team lost to Williams at Briggs Field last Saturday. The 13-4 defeat was caused by a man to even the score at 4-4 before Williams began to come back. No 1. Tech goal was scored by Paul Bock early in the third period. Nothing could stop the Williams attack that led to a 13-4 lead for the opening 15 minutes to completely dominate the play. The last Tech goal was scored by Ted Madden, Schneelock, and Clifford firing the ball past the goalie for a 7-4 lead and the half ended.

In the next half it was all Williams. Led by their star Maynard Schneelock, Clifford and Bock ran the score to 4-1 before Williams began to come back. However, after a short lapse Tech again put on the pressure and with Ted Madden, Schneelock, and Clifford firing the ball past the goalie for a 7-4 lead and the half ended.

The Tech Institute beat Governor Dummer 33 to 20, at Briggs Field Thursday afternoon, May 5. At the outset the Boston Tech was successful in sweeping the dashes in good times with the help of the 35-mile-an-hour gale that prevailed. Jim Adams took first in all the throwing events as usual. Boston University, with 234 points, placed second honors all the way. Tech
