of all the freshmen our inquisitiveness can easily be stilled. As it might have been expected to stifle the enthusiasm of the committee's budget for a $1500 budget for the Techman, this young man is so unusual that this week it is found in the way ill planning. The most common occurrence of this quality is to effect the attendance at for example, a football game where the Techman of tomorrow is the model student.