Stroke winners were Kellom and Bill Russell literally with a time of 6 minutes, 4.3 seconds. The 440-yard event was won by the team from Harvard with Conlin leading and finishing third with 59.2 points.

In the 200-yard freestyle Carl Mellin took the lead at the start and held it all the way to come churning down the last lap with a new record of 1 minute, 47.1 seconds. The new record is 3 minutes, 32.2 seconds as compared with the old record set last year by Jack Beattie of one second more.

Jim Leonard showed plenty of flair and speed in the 50-yard freestyle event. He churned down the last lap with a tenth of a second more. Compared with the old record set at 23.9 seconds, he was third with 24.0 seconds.

In the 120-yard medley the Techmen, Newman Club of Boston Teachers’ College, and the Faculty three competing teams were victor in one event. The 300-yard medley relay was won by the team from Harvard.

In the 200-yard medley relay team composed of Ben Dann, Bob Pelletier and Stan Loomis won in the time of three minutes, 13.1 seconds. The 400-yard freestyle relay was won by the team from Harvard.

In the diving event the Techmen took the first and third positions. Bob Ellis took the winning spot with 65.6 points while Lou Lehman was third with 90.2 points.

Fresh Take Two

Over the past week-end the freshmen swimmers recorded two victories. The first win of the weekend was made as the sequel of the freshman from Boston University by the score of 36-15. Brookline high school was the second victim and last Saturday afternoon, before the varsity meet, the freshmen again triumphant by the score of 42-20.

The 300-yard medley relay team composed of Carl Mellin, Ben Dann, Bill Russell and Dick Pitler showed all of the form and speed necessary to walk away with the 440-yard event. They churned down the last lap with a time of 8 minutes, 36.1 seconds. The Techmen swam away with the 440-yard event, with Conlin finishing the winner with a time of 6 minutes, 47.1 seconds.

Dick Pitler showed all of the form and speed necessary to walk away with the first place in the 150-yard back stroke while teammate Ben Dann got the second place. The winning time for the event was 67.1 seconds.

Pelletier Triumphs

In the 200-yard backstroke sophomore Bob Pelletier took a fifteen-yard lead early in the race and finished first place about twenty yards ahead of Jim Hodges, M.I.T., and Dick Shepard, of Trinity, who fought all the way for the runner-up spot. Pelletier’s time for the event was 2 minutes, 32.2 seconds.

In the relay events each of the competing teams was victor in one of the races. The 100-yard medley relay team composed of Ben Dann, Bob Pelletier and Stan Loomis won in the time of three minutes, 13.1 seconds. The 400-yard freestyle relay was won by the team from Harvard.