the program until early November heatedly by members of the freshman schedules was discussed. The main points of the program consisted of the reordering of the athletic program and the athletic associations, and in addition, recommending compulsory freshman athletics. The compulsory freshman athletic program was suggested for the same reasons that have been advanced to the freshman in the past few years, mainly the fact that the program would be beneficial in all respects to both the freshman and the school.

Opposition Strident At this first proposal of the present athletic program, opposition was present by the freshman class who had been advanced when the idea was born. Many of them agreed with the arguments against the present program and the agreement with the Committee. Stated Goldin, "I think that sports should exist for those who want to participate of their own free will." This sentiment was strongly advanced when the idea was born, creating much trouble with the college administration. Among the subjects he discussed were the success of the American Student Union, or who did not approve of Communism. Its tendency to regard as a dangerous doctrine, along with other doctrines, of peoples of all races, colors, or creeds, and subversive any beliefs, and our almost emotional panic." He continued by saying, "Another political or too minor or null balance is the pending Barnes Bill. If the prospective employer is really a pliable and subversive any beliefs, and our almost emotional panic." He continued by saying, "Another political or too minor or null balance is the pending Barnes Bill. If the prospective employer is really a pliable and subversive any beliefs, and our almost emotional panic." He continued by saying, "Another political or too minor or null balance is the pending Barnes Bill. If the prospective employer is really a pliable and subversive any beliefs, and our almost emotional panic." He continued by saying, "Another political or too minor or null balance is the pending Barnes Bill. If the prospective employer is really a pliable and subversive any beliefs, and our almost emotional panic.

Killian Talks At Red Bill Debate Last Monday afternoon Dr. James Killian, Vice-President of the Institute, spoke before the joint Senate Committee on Education and the Massachusetts Legislative Council. Speaking on the bearing of the Barney Bill, Dr. Killian said that the influences of any nature from the Communist institutions of Massachusetts. Dr. Killian was quick to point out the difficulties which would arise if the bill were passed. But he also pointed out that the bill would require the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communist Party. In 2, as it is, it is a trend towards a political party, and it is definitely to establish the fact by either the individual or the group. Dr. Killian stated, "I know that the bill requires the educational administration to be able at all times to state the doctrines of the American Communis...