Veras Elected President of Athletic Association
Lamphier, Hudson Also Fill Offices

At the annual elections meeting of the Athletic Association last Tuesday evening, Jim Veras, captain of the soccer team, was elected to head the organization during the coming year, succeeding Duane Bogner as president.

To fill the vice-presidency posts the athletic association selected Jim Veras to serve as publicity manager of the ball. He paid his committee, and has been a participant of the hockey team, was elected to the North-South team, with a chance for the university team.

Tennis candidates nominated by the executive committee, consideration of a special slate of can-

Vice-president in charge of intramurals. Hudson had unanimously named vice-president in charge of intramurals. Hudson had no other nominees opposing his candidacy. George H. Washington was, nominated as the only candidate for the varsity athletics, Tom Lamphier has served as manager of the baseball team for two years. Bennington, of the Athletic Association last Tuesday evening Jim Veras, ascends to the presidency.

To fill the vice-presidency posts, the athletic association selected Jim Veras to serve as publicity manager of the ball. He paid his committee, and has been a participant of the hockey team, was elected to the North-South team, with a chance for the university team.

Tennis candidates nominated by the executive committee, consideration of a special slate of can-

Vice-president in charge of intramurals. Hudson had unanimously named vice-president in charge of intramurals. Hudson had no other nominees opposing his candidacy. George H. Washington was, nominated as the only candidate for the varsity athletics, Tom Lamphier has served as manager of the baseball team for two years. Bennington, of the Athletic Association last Tuesday evening Jim Veras, ascends to the presidency.

To fill the vice-presidency posts, the athletic association selected Jim Veras to serve as publicity manager of the ball. He paid his committee, and has been a participant of the hockey team, was elected to the North-South team, with a chance for the university team.

Tennis candidates nominated by the executive committee, consideration of a special slate of can-

Vice-president in charge of intramurals. Hudson had unanimously named vice-president in charge of intramurals. Hudson had no other nominees opposing his candidacy. George H. Washington was, nominated as the only candidate for the varsity athletics, Tom Lamphier has served as manager of the baseball team for two years. Bennington, of the Athletic Association last Tuesday evening Jim Veras, ascends to the presidency.

Two Beaver Squads Face Dartmouth Tomorrow

Technology's varsity and freshman squash teams won their matches at the Barford House house yesterday afternoon—the varsity defeating Trinity College, 8-2, and the freshmen taking a close one from Tufts' freshmen, 3-2.

Tomorrow the varsity plays Dartmouth on the home courts at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday afternoon the varsity clashes at Harvard University in the last match before the Eastern Intercollegiate at Yale University, March 6-8.

Kelly Triumphs

The hardest fought match of the afternoon was between Technology's and Dartmouth's teams, with a win by either team carrying over the entire slate of candidates.

Dartmouth's winning combination was the score that Tech pinned on this match. The New England Inter-

Swimming Team Swamps Tufts To Gain Lopsided Win, 58-17

Charming to victories in all but one event, the Technology swimmers swamped Tufts, 85-17, last Friday night at the Jamaica pool. Two Beaver records fell in the Tufts contest, as the swimmers garnered their fifth win of the season.

Bob Pelletier set a new mark for the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:34.6, smashing by almost one second the old record set four years ago. Dave Roller, of Tech, was second to Pelletier in the event.

Two seconds were clipped from the 200-yard medley relay record by the team of Ben Dann, Bob Pelletier, and Bob Edgar who negotiated the distance in three minutes, 52 seconds. The old mark had been set by Dick Fitter, Pelletier, and Frank Conlin of Connecticut at the Maine meet on January 13.

Meet B.U. Tonight

Tonight at 8:30 p.m., the varsity squash team will play at Boston University at Alumni Pool. Tomorrow afternoon the freshmen team meets the North-South team at the home pool, in a competition beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Last weekend's encounter saw Tech show strong only in the 440-yard freestyle, while the Engineers registered a clean sweep of the other winning events. Tech's Carl McMillan triumphed in the 220-yard freestyle, and Jim Leonard flashed a 54.3 second victory in the 50-yard breaststroke.

Win In Boxing

The Tech team dominated the divines, with Bob Ellis and Lee Lehman capturing the first two places, respectively. In the 190-pound (light) the Beaver expat, Jack Deaver, paced the field to gain a first place with the time of 1:06.7.

Swimming Team Swamps Tufts

To Rent

For DANTES

Suffer Third Loss

To Rent

To Gain Lopsided Win, 58-17

Charming to victories in all but one event, the Technology swimmers swamped Tufts, 85-17, last Friday night at the Jamaica pool. Two Beaver records fell in the Tufts contest, as the swimmers garnered their fifth win of the season.

Bob Pelletier set a new mark for the 200-yard breaststroke with a time of 2:34.6, smashing by almost one second the old record set four years ago. Dave Roller, of Tech, was second to Pelletier in the event.

Two seconds were clipped from the 200-yard medley relay record by the team of Ben Dann, Bob Pelletier, and Bob Edgar who negotiated the distance in three minutes, 52 seconds. The old mark had been set by Dick Fitter, Pelletier, and Frank Conlin of Connecticut at the Maine meet on January 13.

Meet B.U. Tonight

Tonight at 8:30 p.m., the varsity squash team will play at Boston University at Alumni Pool. Tomorrow afternoon the freshmen team meets the North-South team at the home pool, in a competition beginning at 2:30 p.m.

Last weekend's encounter saw Tech show strong only in the 440-yard freestyle, while the Engineers registered a clean sweep of the other winning events. Tech's Carl McMillan triumphed in the 220-yard freestyle, and Jim Leonard flashed a 54.3 second victory in the 50-yard breaststroke.

Win In Boxing

The Tech team dominated the divines, with Bob Ellis and Lee Lehman capturing the first two places, respectively. In the 190-pound (light) the Beaver expat, Jack Deaver, paced the field to gain a first place with the time of 1:06.7.