Harvard Defeats Squash Team 8-1

As Brown Wins

The varsity squash team was won by Harvard University's varsity 8-1 at Harvard Wednesday. The only team to salvage a win was Captain Brown, who was voted by five judges in detecting Adam Foster, of Harvard, 7-5, 12-8, 11-9, and 10-9.

The Brown team had the longest, low-scoring match in the Cranford Memorial. Early in the first game, 16-14, was the second two of the match, 11-11, and then lost the last two and the match, 11-11.
