The band that parodied the father's daughter song!

As a matter of fact, it was run thirty feet from the stage. E. G. Richardson, having recently married, came from Lynn to open the party in the face of another newcomer to Cambridge, the Society of Technology. Ever since then, Charlie had been an institution at Technology...

The two hundred bids are out for the 1948 All-Tech Sing. When the Baton Society's lone error this year was in underestimating attendance...
