In Warm-up Game

At a rally held on Monday, Techology ushered in its first varsity basketball season. The twenty-one men were on hand to meet Coach Fred Reichling and listen to some tips handed out by a veteran Boston Red Sox scout.

Reichling presented a plan for practices, which will be held at Bridges Field from 4:30 p.m. until some time handed out by a veteran Boston Red Sox scout.

The sailing program will be open in the summer.

With the promise of Spring at last, the Athletic Association announced its plans for the extension of the sailing program and the outdoor activities. This schedule will become effective April 1 and all freshmen who indicated preferences for their favorite sports are urgently to consult the M.I.T.A.A. bulletin board immediately to check their listings.

The outdoor program will be open to the freshmen A-2 students and those who signed last term for this activity will find a list of those eligible on a notice posted in the A.A. office. There will be a charge of $3.00 for entry into the Athletic Asnociation membership privileges to those in the A-2 courses.

The required shore school will be given during the week for those in the activity.

Freshmen already qualified may be called upon to act as assistance to the freshmen A-2 students.
