Glee Clubs Lead Off Big Tech Weekend

Raddcliffe Joins M.I.T.

In Concert And Dance

Opening the Institute's Open House weekend, on Friday, April 16, will be a concert by the Radcliffe Glee Club and the M.I.T. Glee Club, to be followed by an informal dance in Mum's Hall.

The concert will start promptly at 8:30 p.m. and the dance will last until 11:30 p.m.

The Glee Club will begin the program, offering selections including "Oh What Delight" from Beethoven's opera "Fidelio," "A Scottish Folk Song," "The Palace Anteporta" by Randall Thomson, The Glee Club will also present two Ray Stangold choral arrangements, one of "The Battle Hymns of the Republic," and one of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Present Four Selections

The Raddcliffe group will present four selections: "Canon Luteo" from the Cantata Number 29 by Bach, "On The Prow," and "Fairy Trains" by Weizmann. These folk songs arranged by Ruth M. Abbott, and accompanied by Mrs. Weizmann's piano, will be sung for women's voices by Raddcliffe Membership.

The last part of the program will be presented by the combined M.I.T. Glee Club and Radcliffe Choral Society. They will present "Hallelujah and Amen" from Handel's oratorio "Judas Maccabaeus."

Tickets will be on sale in the lobby of building 10. They will be $1.00 a couple for the concert alone, and will be available at the box office for the concert alone. In the lobby, tickets for the dance alone will be $1.00 a couple and $0.50 per person for the concert alone. There will be no tickets for the dance alone.
