Wellesley Cancels
Usual Frosh Dance; 1947 Flop Blamed There will be no ac quandantin dance for the Wellesley freshmen this year according to a recent announcement by Mrs. Stell, the diector of social affairs for Wellesley

There was too much con-motion and turmoil at last year's dance... and there was talk of students ticketed she stated.

Explaining further, she said that the excessive numbers of males pre-rrent any interest from being made, and that Alumnae Hall could not handle so many people. The Freshmen were informed that any realistic number of people is to take the dance.

Small parties will be held in the individual rooms. Mrs. Stell feels that these affairs can be more effectively ran-
