Open House at Technology will be held again this year, it was decided last Wednesday at the second meeting of the Institute Committee. It had previously been planned to hold an Open House, but the late decision to hold the tribulation to the drive for money.

This year the administration is adding a drive for $20,000,000 and an Open House will materially aid in this drive. Also in connection with the drive for funds, the Institute Committee has appointed a vocation of scientists. According
