Enlisted Vets Can Now Apply For Commissions In The Reserve

According to a recent directive of the War Department, all present or former warrant officers and enlisted men and women of all components of the Army of the United States (not including officers on active duty or former warrant officers and enlisted men and women of all components of the Army of the United States) are eligible for application for appointment as a second lieutenant in the Officers Reserve Corps.

If you are interested in applying for Reserve commissioning, write to the personnel officer at your nearest Army post or reserve center.

The Army of the United States...