Tennis Tournament Approaches End

The M.I.T. Open Tennis Tournament is now rapidly coming to a close. Most of the matches in the round of sixteen have already been played, and the finals will probably be played next weekend.

Kaufmann Wins

And Kaufmann, first seeded player, was the first man to enter the semi-finals round, slugging it out with Bob Donald, an unseeded player. Daley upset Peter Sey in a close fought three set match to gain the quarters, while Kaufmann advanced on a default.

Housevigate Advances

Jerry Menard, third seeded, advanced to the quarter-final round by beating Olesen in three sets, 6-2, 4-6, and then went on to the semi-finals by beating Amos Roberts, 6-2, 6-4. Others to advance in the quarter-finals were Boronan and Zimmerman. At this stage of the tournament four of the first five seeded players are still in the running, while Kaufmann advanced on a default.

Squash Team Holds Rally Today, 5 P.M.

Plans and schedules for the 1955 squash season are nearly complete according to manager Bob Hinrichs. A rally will be held this afternoon at 3:00 p.m. in the squash courts behind the Alumni Pool. Coach Jack Summers, Bill Stoney, new varsity captain, and Hinrichs will discuss the season plans and outline the schedule as it now stands. The first varsity match will be played with McGill University, who have graduated the make-up of their teams. Seven of last year's first ten players have graduated, the make-up of the team is wide open, and manager Hinrichs requests that all interested squash players be present.

While the varsity schedule is completed with the exception of one game, the schedule for the freshmen intercollegiate competition is still in the tentative stage.

Frosh Football Team Journeys to Concord High

Coaches Are Certain Team Will Overcome Sophs On Field Day

Last Wednesday afternoon the frosh football squad journeyed to Concord, Mass., for an informal scrimmage with the local high school. Coach Bob Baker was confident that the fresh will definitely fight for the honor of their class on November 6. The reason for this belief is the performance of the squad in a game against the Frosh goal, and it is expected to put on a fine performance on the part of the Tech defense to safeguard the victory.

Frosh Booters will be striving for their last win as they meet Rensselaer this afternoon at Briggs Field on the same day as the varsity game. The score in this game was 2-0.

Meet R.F.I. Tomorrow afternoon the varsity booters will be striving for their fifth win as they meet Rensselaer Pop Warner Junior at Briggs Field at 2:00 p.m. The freshmen will square off against the R.P.I. fresh in a preliminary game.
