Fraternity Findings

By Ed Stringham and Joe Flemming

The Delta — The front door opened and there stood Jamie, joyous to see his friends. He was standing in a doorway that was just wide enough for him to fit through. His smile was radiant, and his energy was contagious. He had his black suit on, looking sharp and ready to make an impression.

final TD on a pass from Morten to Brewer. After playing scoreless football through the four regulation periods and two additional sudden death periods, the latter two being played under moonlight, a flip of a coin decided to make Wilson team a 7-6 victor over a Navy eight. Larry Garbie led the Sigma Nu's to a 10-0 victory over Pi Lambda Phi. He scored the first touchdown on a pass from Taylor Gray. He later set up another score by Bill Warren when he brought an interpreted pass up to the Pi Lambda 2-yard line.

Du won their second straight victory with a 10-0 win over ATO. The first points were scored on a plunge by Sam Martin, which had been set up by a long McMartin to Winward pass. McMartin made the final score at 1-0.
