COOP CLOSES ALL
SATURDAY

The Harvard Cooperative Society has announced that, beginning in the near future, the Coop will no longer open on Saturday mornings.

The volume of business has not been sufficient to justify keeping it open, but the clerks who have worked on Saturday will now be on duty during the week to help alleviate the often crowded conditions at the Coop.

VERAS

in a New York Borough meet and placing thirteenth in a field of 13 in a City meet—which he still likes to talk about—Jim decided to try out for the shot at Tech. He worked hard but was not very successful. As he put it, "Coach Bob Wolfe was very patient with me."

This is Jim's second year as soc-cer captain at Tech. He likes the sport here because it is played in an informal atmosphere, no regimentation. The play is strictly team-work. Jim expects to be switched to a right-outside position soon in or-der that the line may have more scoring punch.

Veras believes that all students should try out for some kind of ath-Letics and activities. "Each game is a new thrill." Contrary to the general opinion about activities, Jim's grades and health have improved since he increased his extra-curricu-lar activities.

Concerning Tech's teams and secretaries, Veras is at the moment unattached but is "romantically inclined."

Telephone System
Reopens Exchange

The exchange recently added to the Cambridge telephone system will not be for the convenience of the students residing in the dormi-tories. The telephone company ad- mitted that the exchange, University, is somewhat misleading. According to the Telephone Com-pany, a University exchange existed some time ago, but it was shut down by exchanges like Eliot and To-per. The overcrowding of the present facilities has made the old University exchange essential for efficient operation of the telephone network of Cambridge.
