It seems that fraternity initiation weeks are on again these days. A girl who lives in the freshman dorm at Fisher College told us that a bundle was received at her house the other day. The bundle was a small trunk, looking a little the worse for wear.

Inside, to the amazement of the Freshmen, was a sort of well-arranged freshman. Upon further examination of the young man, the girls found that he was a pledge in a Fraternity. His loving brothers were six or seven who sent him on his merry voyage.

We don't know if you are aware of it or not, but there is a student member of the Coop managing board. Each year some undergraduate is chosen for the honor. We don't know yet who this year's student representative is, but we can tell you that of the three students nominated for the Coop recommendation, two were given it. Paul McNabough and Bill Mitchell, both active in activity finances, were given the nod.

For Victor, who is the head of the Walker Dining Service employees, it was not. We hear that the major reason for his non-nomination was a report by a frosh declaring that Victor was not kind to his employees.

We wonder if Coonie invested this? And if so, what of it?

We are in receipt of a clipping from the Techological Review that says, in effect: a visiting Committee has just finished an investigation of the textbook used in E111. The Committee (appointed by we don't know whom) found that the 'Com- 111
