McGill Univ. Stops Tech Squash Team

Visitors Win Match 6-1; Roberto Is Only Winner

Playing on the Alumni Pool courts Saturday afternoon, Tech’s varsity squash team lost to McGill University 6-1.

Amos Roberts was the only Beaver winner when he defeated Pearce in the number seven match, 16-17, 6-15, 16-10 and 15-12. The other matches were closely contested; Bill Denny, Happy Chapman and Fernando Digoyos all extended their opponents to five games before losing.

Much of the difference in the scores seemed to be in their ability to hold center court. Irving, for example, held the center more of the second and fourth games of his match with McGill’s Frew Harris to win them, 15-12 and 18-17.

The record-breaking team, winning in the time of 2:25.4, consisted of Bill Macht, Wayne Carrier, Randall Cleworth, Bruce Calhoun, Jerry Lewis and anchorman Doug Dimitriou.

Out of 16 runners crowding the track, the winners in the 9 1/2 mile race were Ed Olney ’51, Gordon Hunt ’50 and Jerry Lewis ’49, who placed first, second and third, respectively. Seniors Wayne Carrier and Jerry Lewis were the 66th yard hurdle men in 7.0 seconds and Junior Al Doll took the 60-yard dash in 7.7 seconds to add to the point totals of their respective classes.
