In its last two games before vacation, the Tech hockey team split two encounters, trouncing Devens 12-5 on January 18 and dropping a close game to B.U. on the following evening.

In the Devens game the Engineer third line came out under wraps to outshine the other two lines. Although he spent only two minutes on the ice, Don Lea scored two goals and added three assists to increase his scoring total. Charlie Sloan and Gerry Walworth also scored two goals apiece in this contest, while single tallies were scored by Andy Pulver, Beatty, Russell, Chatham and Hamilton.

Corner Outstanding

The BU game was really a heartbreaker for the Beaver six to lose to Scott Connor playing an outstanding game in the nets and Jim Bell scored for BU to give the Engineers a seemingly insurmountable 1-0 lead. However, the Beaver six came back and amassed the crowd by tying up the game with three goals in less than three minutes. Captain Ted Madden scored at 5:40, Lea got his second goal at 11:08, and Madden came back to score the tying goal at 12:30. The remainder of the game was even, both teams threatening often and both goalies making miraculous saves. However, with two minutes to play Bill Kir- cune of the Terriers scored the puck past Connor, and in the remaining moments the Beavers were无力 to score again.
