M.I.T. Debate Team Defeated In Semi-Finals

Dean Barker Stresses Social Understanding

In Banquet Address
Dr. Everett M. Barker, Dean of Students, delivered a banquet last Saturday night in the Campus Room of the Graduate House Student Union, in honor of the December finalists in the annual M.I.T. Debate Tournament. Mrs. Barker, President of the Boston Women's Club and a prominent woman in the field of Social Work, was the principal speaker. She made the following remarks:

"In a democracy, it is the individual who counts. It is up to each one of us to promote understanding, to work for peace, and to build a world that is better than the one we inherit."

Barker Hall under being the monthly dances held in Morss Hall for members of the M.I.T. student body. The dances are sponsored by the Student Council and are open to all students, regardless of sex. The dances are held on the third Friday of each month and are free of charge.

Building Five Naval Museum Gets New Look for Convocation

Present remodeling operations on the Francisco Ruizell Hart Memorial, located on the front side of Building Five, are intended to improve the appearance and character of the naval historian and model building. The work is scheduled to be completed by the time of the Mid-Century Convocation and Inauguration.

Seaboard and Blade To Hold Annual Ball

Military pomp and ceremony will be the theme at Seaboard and Blade's Annual Military Ball this Friday in Moss Hall. Tickets, available to anyone for formal or military balls to be held in the evening, will be sold at 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. to the music of the Top Hat Orchestra.

Professor Evans hopes to be able to secure fresh dancers from time to time in the future to keep up interest. A series of models on the evening of 118th will probably constitute the main theme of the museum. Most of the material is now displayed in the Top Hat Orchestra, as are some prominent naval archivists.

The museum, which was provided for by the will of the late Charles P. Smith, is open to the public at all times without an attendant.
