Walker Facilities
To Be Curtailed During Convocation
No Meals To Be Served Friday and Saturday Week

The use of Walker Memorial for Convocation panel meetings and the President's inaugural reception has caused the closing of the cafeterias all day Friday, April 1, and Saturday, April 2, according to Dean Benjamin H. Horton, chairman of the Convocation Committee. The upper floor will be kept open during this period. Dining facilities will be open as usual at the Graduate House on these two days, with the exception of some space used by members of the Committee on Development luncheon on Friday afternoon. On these two days, the Graduate House will serve breakfast from 6:00 to 8:00, luncheon from 11:30 to 5:00, and dinner from 5:00 to 10:00. A closing of Walker Memorial cafeterias on Friday and part of Saturday week will not be onerous, he said, after every other possible location for convocations and inauguration functions had been explored and dismissed. Closures of the cafeterias are due to the fact that other rooms are needed for Closing ceremonies and for "the needs of the audience." The arrangements will be made to provide food and water for those who have to stay over the weekend. The "big-boss" in the gambling world, J. P. "Tip" Gordon, although the room will be set up by William Siemkowicz, '50, will be in charge of the games.

Smith Glee Club
Here For Dance, Concert on April 9

Visiting More Hall on Saturday evening, April 9, the Smith College Glee Club will participate in a concert of songs presented by the L.M.T. organization. This will be the last Glee Club concert for the year. The L.M.T. organization is headed by Mr. Charles H. Stowe, staff member of the Music Department. The concert will consist of a program of songs and speeches, a mixture of classical and contemporary works, and will feature the group's premier quartet, "The Three Tenors." Tickets will be sold at the door for $1.00. The program will begin at 2:00 p.m., and the concert will last until approximately 3:00 p.m. A reception will follow at 3:30 p.m.

Cigarette Company
Reneges On Orders

The Allen Tobacco Company, a firm advertising that it would send cigarettes at reduced prices to subscribers who entered the company's "For Stratton Prize Competition" before the end of March, has broken its promise, according to the finalists, in the Stratton Prize competition, since February 5 of this year. An investigation is being made by the Post Office Department to determine whether or not the mails have been used to defraud.

The "Stratton Prize Competition" was sponsored by the Tobacco Company, the Allen's Tobacco Company, Popular Mail Service, and Reliable Merchants Company. The question of how many orders had been sent was an important one to the Post Office, as it took three days instead of two to complete the eliminations. The judges for the semi-finals were Professor Roland Glessner of course IV, Mr. Robert Marsh, the debating coach, and Professor Ascher Stanger of course X.

The finalists will compete the second week of April for prizes totaling $200, are, Gerald G. Fisch, '50, Charles T. Sayre, the operator of the company, is under bond to appear in Federal Court. He has spoken in the Post Office Department, the Tobacco Company, the Allen Tobacco Company, Popular Mail Service, and Reliable Merchants Company. The question of how many orders had been sent was an important one to the Post Office, as it took three days instead of two to complete the eliminations. The judges for the semi-finals were Professor Roland Glessner of course IV, Mr. Robert Marsh, the debating coach, and Professor Ascher Stanger of course X.

The finalists will compete the second week of April for prizes totaling $200, are, Gerald G. Fisch, '50, Charles T. Sayre, the operator of the company, is under bond to appear in Federal Court. He has spoken in the Post Office Department, the Tobacco Company, the Allen Tobacco Company, Popular Mail Service, and Reliable Merchants Company. The question of how many orders had been sent was an important one to the Post Office, as it took three days instead of two to complete the eliminations. The judges for the semi-finals were Professor Roland Glessner of course IV, Mr. Robert Marsh, the debating coach, and Professor Ascher Stanger of course X.