Eleven Casanovas
Woo Emerson Girl

In Local Wolf Hunt

A pleasant surprise greeted the Institute's wolves last Thursday. The team, in charge of Miss Pola Chasman, was part of the local Wolf Hunt sponsored by the "O Club." Starting at 12:30 noon, with animating Rob Allen as master of ceremonies, on the steps of Building Ten, Miss Chasman held an audience in laughter as she outmaneuvered eleven enthusiastic, but unsuccessful, attempts to get a date.

Wolf in Sheep Clothing

Cas was followed by Casdall, assuaged English, who introduced himself in Spanish, German, and French. After drinking this polyglot conversation for three minutes, occasionally shifting to English. The judges picked Jim Rickets '51, Karel denTex '51, and Cass Zublin, '51 as winners. From that point on, the King Wolf will be chosen at the sophomore floor.

Miss Chasman, who substituted for the previously chosen Emerson girl, is a New Yorker, majoring in drama at Emerson College. She recently acted in "The Men Who Came To Dinner" and has done television work. In her opinion, Tech men are well skilled in the amatory arts and "Bluff," she said, "is the most important part of a girl."

Quadrilingual Lover

Next came Karel denTex, an armature linguist, who introduced himself in Spanish, German, and French. He submitted this polyglot conversation for three minutes, occasionally shifting to English. The judges picked Jim Rickets '51, Karel denTex '51, and Cass Zublin, '51 as winners. From that point on, the King Wolf will be chosen at the sophomore floor.

Armenian Club's Dance
To Aid Scholarship Fund

Ever since the increase in tuition was announced, many of the students at school have been seeking ways to help aspiring freshmen who are scared by the price-tag on an education. First to come up with a plan is the Armenian Club, which is sponsoring an Informal Scholarship Dance to be held at the House in Walter, May 31. The proceeds will go to a scholarship fund to help boys preferably of Armenian descent who could not otherwise afford an M.I.T. education. The informal scholarship dance will be open to all techmen and friends. The bishop of the evening will be the presentation of a beautiful loving cup to the girl judged "Queen of the Night."
