LACROSSE

Marshall Hurls 5-Hitter

...the Crimson outscored the Engineers in the second half, 4-0, while holding them to one hit, a fourth-inning left-center field single by Neil Morrison, who was sacrificed to second.

The Crimson trailed, 1-0, in the third, but tied the score on an unassisted wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews.

Crimson opened up a 2-1 lead in the fourth on a pair of errors and a single by Ted Mallon.

The Crimson scored again in the fifth, this time on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 3-1 lead.

In the sixth inning, the Crimson added two more runs on a pair of errors and a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews.

The Crimson went on to win the game, 5-1, on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 5-1 lead.

The Crimson scored again in the seventh inning, this time on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 6-1 lead.

The Crimson went on to win the game, 6-1, on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 6-1 lead.

The Crimson scored again in the eighth inning, this time on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 7-1 lead.

The Crimson went on to win the game, 7-1, on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 7-1 lead.

The Crimson scored again in the ninth inning, this time on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 8-1 lead.

The Crimson went on to win the game, 8-1, on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 8-1 lead.

The Crimson scored again in the tenth inning, this time on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 9-1 lead.

The Crimson went on to win the game, 9-1, on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 9-1 lead.

The Crimson scored again in the eleventh inning, this time on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 10-1 lead.

The Crimson went on to win the game, 10-1, on a wild pitch by Imperial pitcher Dave Mathews, giving the Crimson a 10-1 lead.