The Sponge Rubber Products Co., Shelton, Conn. X, V.

Leuckel got five singles, and Ruther-
field two singles and two doubles.
Baker also got four hits in the
outfield, and Oberg had a single and homer for the losers. The "8B" team won both games with scores
of 12-8.

The Sponge Rubber Products Co.,
Shelton, Conn. X, V.

Plage: Four 'C' boys took an early lead with 2 runs in the first two innings. Four runs in the fourth put the dorm team out front 5-2.

The "B" squad scored pairs of runs in the first four innings, but this was offset by a bunching of five runs in the third and sixth.

The "8B" team stayed in the running Sunday by knocking on ATO 9-8, despite a five-run rally

by the Grad House A team 12-8.

Chemistry Society
Officers Elected

The "8B" team stayed in the running Sunday by knocking
on ATO 9-8, despite a five-run rally
by the Grad House A team 12-8.

Lueckel got five singles, and Suther-
field two singles and two doubles.
Baker also got four hits in the
outfield, and Oberg had a single
and homer for the losers. The "8B"
team won both games with scores
of 12-8.

The Sponge Rubber Products Co.,
Shelton, Conn. X, V.

Office for the fall term were
edited by Kappa Kappa Sigma,
that recently organized honorary chemical society, on Thursday night.

Vice President, John D.
Stolzko; Recording Secretary, Robert C. Tweed; Treasurer, Pete M.
LeDallas; Master of Ceremonies,
Richard T. Keller; and Chairman of Entertainment, Timon B. Hum-
sen. All the above men are Juniors.

Baseball Game
(Continued from Page 1)

on account of darkness when Empire Schneider's hat slipped over
his eyes.

These members of both teams who could still walk thereupon adjourned to a nearby picnic
and homer for the losers. The "8B"
team won both games with scores
of 12-8.

The Sponge Rubber Products Co.,
Shelton, Conn. X, V.

Office for the fall term were
edited by Kappa Kappa Sigma,
that recently organized honorary chem-
cial society, on Thursday night.

Vice President, John D.
Stolzko; Recording Secretary, Robert C. Tweed; Treasurer, Pete M.
LeDallas; Master of Ceremonies,
Richard T. Keller; and Chairman
of Entertainment, Timon B. Hum-
sen. All the above men are Juniors.

Baseball Game
(Continued from Page 1)

on account of darkness when Empire Schneider's hat slipped over
his eyes.

These members of both teams who could still walk thereupon
adjourned to a nearby picnic
and homer for the losers. The "8B"
team won both games with scores
of 12-8.

The Sponge Rubber Products Co.,
Shelton, Conn. X, V.

Office for the fall term were
edited by Kappa Kappa Sigma,
that recently organized honorary chem-
cial society, on Thursday night.

Vice President, John D.
Stolzko; Recording Secretary, Robert C. Tweed; Treasurer, Pete M.
LeDallas; Master of Ceremonies,
Richard T. Keller; and Chairman
of Entertainment, Timon B. Hum-
sen. All the above men are Juniors.

Baseball Game
(Continued from Page 1)

on account of darkness when Empire Schneider's hat slipped over
his eyes.

These members of both teams who could still walk thereupon
adjourned to a nearby picnic
and homer for the losers. The "8B"
team won both games with scores
of 12-8.

The Sponge Rubber Products Co.,
Shelton, Conn. X, V.