Wellesley Asks MIT For Actors

"Dark of The Moon" Is Current Production

Trotta for Wellesley's current "Barnswallow" production, "Dark of the Moon" by Berney and Richards, will be held in Alumni Hall at Wellesley on Thursday, October 6, at 7:30 p.m. Technology men are invited to try out for parts in the production, which will be presented on November 11 and 12 at the Wellesley College Theater.

The Barnswallows give three performances a year. Last year's were: "Lady of the Sonnets," and "Berkshire lMusic Festival" conducted by Irwin Hoffman, who has numerous compositions to his credit and who conducted weekly concerts for two seasons at Tanglewood for the Berkshire Music Festival.

Open To The Public

The great cost of bringing the groups here for its only New England engagement this year places the affair outside the budget of the Lecture Series Committee. Therefore it is necessary to charge admission at the rate of $1, $2, $3 and $4 tax included. During this week and next week tickets will be sold in the lobby of building 2-190, ten from 11:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. After that, remaining tickets will be sold in the lobby of buildings 3-370 and 3-371.

The first in this series was given Thursday, September 29, by Professor Walter G. Whitman, head of the Department who was introduced by Professor Herman P. Meissner. Professor Whitman outlined the main objectives of the Chemical Engineering Department. He said that development of ability and later having quite a run on Broadway. The plot is based on a legend of considerable note. The orchestra will be conducted by Ewen Hoffman, who has numerous compositions to his credit and who conducted weekly concerts for two seasons at Tanglewood for the Berkshire Music Festival.

Sole Complaint

The only widely expressed complaint to be voiced about the new dormitory is the new boarding school with the MIT Lecture Series Committee. It is necessary to charge admission at the rate of $1, $2, $3 and $4 tax included. During this week and next week tickets will be sold in the lobby of buildings 2-190 and 3-370. After that, remaining tickets will be sold at the general public through commercial channels. No dollar tickets will be available outside of Technology. The performance will be at Cumnorridge High and Latin School Auditorium.

Prominent, the MIT Lecture Series Committee. Miss Graham's partner will be Erick Graham-like food or meagre portions served in the spotless pavilion cafeteria. The food so far has been appetizing, well prepared, and immaculately served in the spacious cafeteria's. The meals are bargain. A number of non-residents, in fact, have taken advantage of the cafeteria's pay - for - meals system.

Clee Clubs and Symphony Will Perform "Messiah"

Combined Clee Clubs and the Symphony Orchestra of the Institute, under the direction of Professor Klaus Liepmann, will perform Handel's "Messiah" on December 16 in Jordan Hall. Those who are interested in joining the Women's Clee Club for this occasion are invited to an audition which will take place Tuesday, October 4, at 5:30 p.m. in Room 2-169.
