Recital Scheduled By Institute Band
Cole Porter Selections Included In Program

Next Sunday, at 3:30 p.m. in the Great Court, the M.I.T. Concert Band will offer its first concert of the current school year. Admission is free. In event of rain, the concert will be postponed until Sunday, November 30.

The program will include Wagner’s “Rienzi Overture,” Cole Porter selections, Robert McBride’s “Lonely Landsease,” and Grofe’s “Mardi Gras” together with a group of other marches and light selections.

The Under the direction of John Cor- ley, the Concert Band was a new addition to the Institute’s list of activities last year. Since its formation, the band has been heard at a number of freshman convocations and at the Hatch Memorial Shell on the Esplanade.

The Musical Clubs also announce openings for a number of men interested in the management activities of the organization. Further information can be obtained in Room 301 of Walker Memorial between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m.

Major-Minor Cup From Brown Meet Goes To Beavers

A victorious Beaver sailing squad brought home the cup from Brown’s Major-Minor Octagonal Regatta. Leading all the way, Tech, represented by Bob Nickerson and Fawcett, wound up with an eleven point lead over Brown, the runner-up. Sailing in a wind ranging from light to moderate, and under an occasional sprinkle of rain, Nickers-son and Fawcett placed high point and second high for the regatta, respectively. Nickerson, with 36 points, tied the entire Yale score, winning three firsts, two seconds, and one third place. Fawcett, high man in his division, won two firsts, three seconds, and one fourth place. Next Saturday and Sunday, M.I.T.
