Booters To Face
Conn. Tomorrow

Registration Certificate
Admits Tech Students

Tomorrow afternoon the Tech soccer team will have one of the biggest tests of the season when it runs up against Connecticut on Briggs Field. Last year's New England champs are having another great season, having lost but one game.

Beaver Captain Dini Dimitriou, who was injured in the RPI game, will probably be back in the starting lineup.

The game, which will begin at 3:30 p.m., is the first for which an admission fee will be charged according to the new AA policy.

Hoop Squad Prepares
For '49-'50 Campaign

Hooling, as the Tech court squad works out in preparation for its '49-'50 campaign, Beaver games are listed on the Beaver slate for this winter, with all but one a holdover from last year's schedule.

With a large number of lettermen as well as several members of last year's successful freshman squad, it looks as if hooling has the material for a good team. It should certainly be an improvement over last year's outings, won only three out of 17 games.

Hooting the list of returning lettermen is captain-elect Lou Morton, back for his fourth season of varsity competition. Other returnees who were more or less regulars last year's outfit, which won only as well as several members of last year's successful freshman squad, it looks as if hooling has the mat"erial for a good team. It should certainly be an improvement over last year's outings, won only three out of 17 games.
