Postwar Scandinavian Economy Viewed by FSSP Reporters

By EARL W. EAMES

The author of the following report, Earl W. Eames, Jr., '49, was the originafer and first director of Technology's Foreign Student Project. The project gives foreign students an opportunity to tour Europe to evaluate the results of the program and to make presentations on its development. The report is the first of a series which are to be sent to the FSSP administration at the Institute. It deals with the travelers' experiences and results of this summer, and will be presented in several installments.
